Dear [REDACTED]

STAT

Here, as promised, is the transcript of our conversation several weeks ago. As I believe I mentioned earlier, I am most pleased with the amount of useful information it contains. A good portion of this is material that will not show up in the written records that have been retained by the Agency. So your willingness to share your recollections with us is all the more appreciated.

Please feel free to make changes to clarify the meaning of the transcript or amplify a particular point you were making. There are a couple of passages where your meaning or words were not clear; help here would be especially valuable. I have noted these places with question marks.

I am enclosing a self-addressed envelope that you can use to return the transcript once you have finished going over it. Of course, if you have any questions, don't hesitate to call me at [REDACTED]

STAT

Per your request, I am also enclosing a copy of my earlier letter to you.

Again, please be assured of our gratitude for all your help.

Sincerely yours,

STAT
